

Step into the world of Japanese design philosophy and lifestyle. Welcome to Puraniks Tokyo Bay, an iconic residential space where traditional Japanese architecture meets with the most contemporary offerings. Where the chaos and stress of the urban life withers out and gives way to a more peaceful Zen approach to life with an edge of minimalistic elegance.

Traditional Japanese philosophy takes inspiration from 5 elements namely; Chi (Earth), Mizu (Water), Ka or Hi (Fire), Kaze (Wind) and Kū (Sky). These five elements come together to inspire the simplistic, natural essence found in minimalistic architecture and design. Experience the calming aura of Japanese lifestyle from the moment you step in Tokyo Bay.
