Why Bidadi?

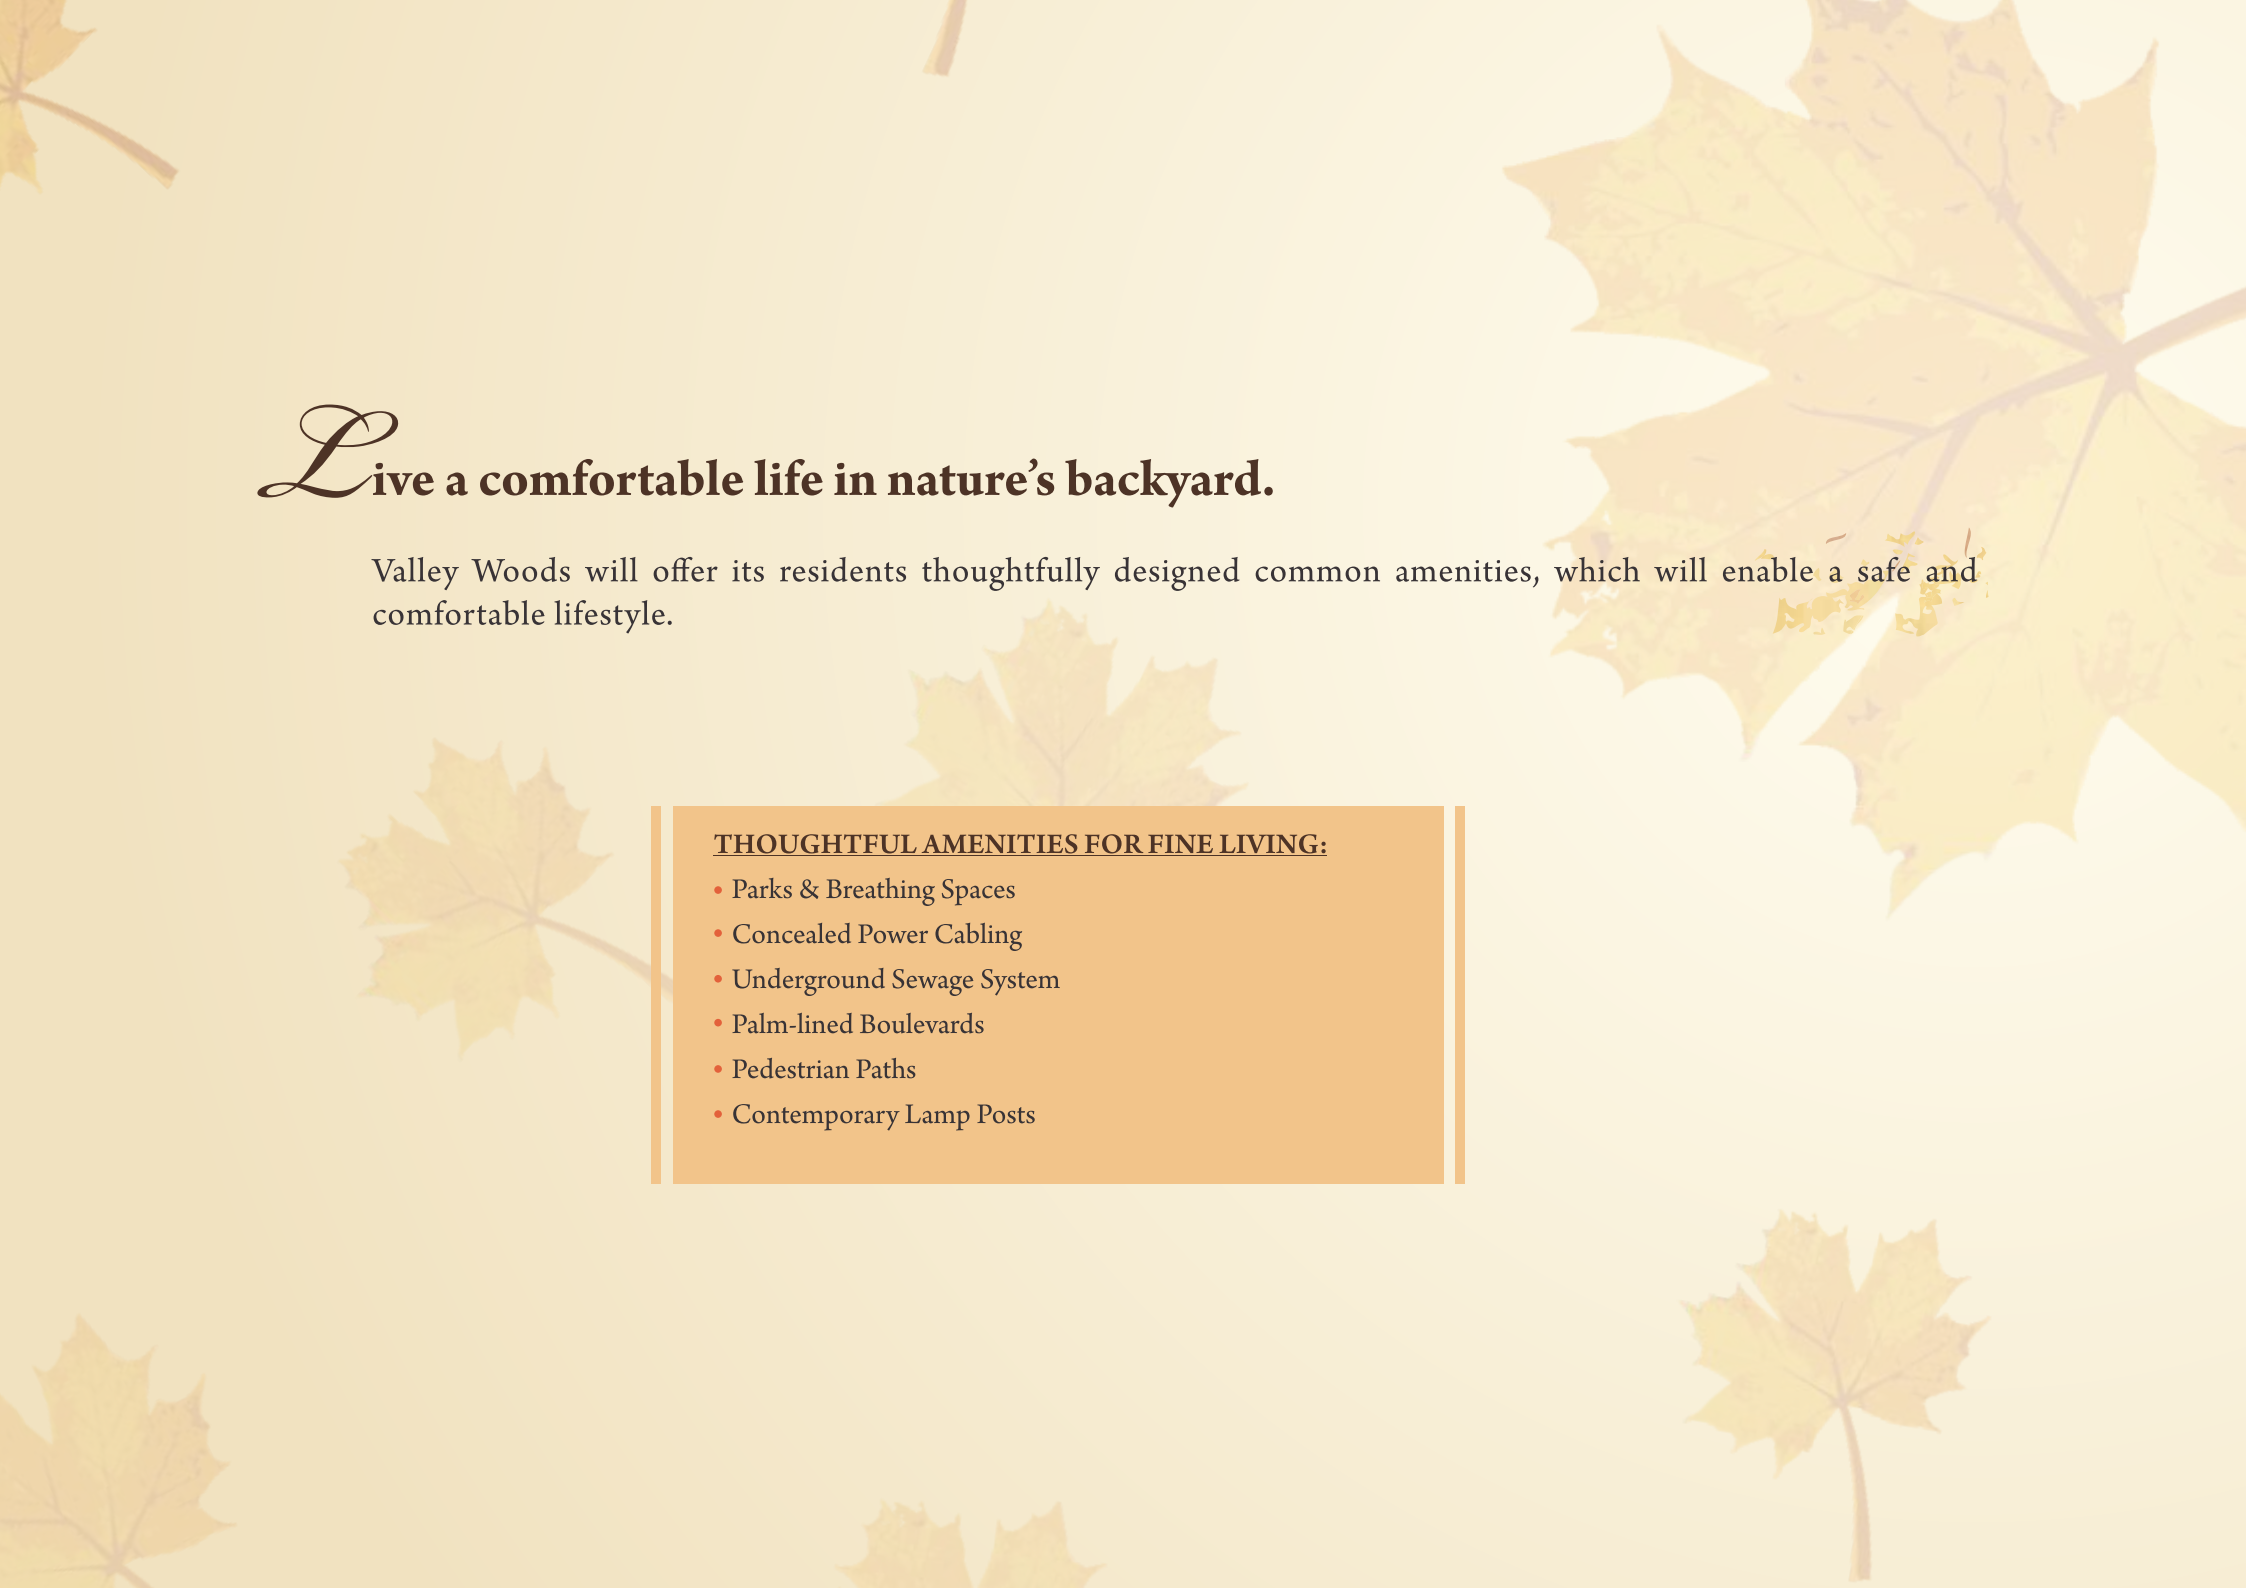

Bidadi is the next big industrial area of Bangalore. The fastest growing township of Bangalore, it holds enormous potential, both in terms of development and investment. The infrastructural growth in the region has made it one of city's most flourishing industrial areas. Bosch is only one amongst the many upcoming industries in Bidadi. Over 20 such large-scale industries are setting up their units in this fastest growing area of Bangalore. Toyota already has a big presence here.

Proposed to be a 'Knowledge City' Bidadi also has major hotspots of Bangalore around it. Like Wonder La, Innovative Film City and an International Golf Course. Making Bidadi the ideal place to invest in, before prices rise many notches higher.
